The case of the Commonwealth against Cocroft Cable, charged with hog stealing, was tried at Campton last Saturday and resulted in a hung jury.

the West Liberty barbecue last Friday, but we understand that no one was hurt.
Bug juice played the biggest part in it.

Sick headache, wind on the stomach, biliousness, nausea, are promptly and agreeably banished by Dr. J. H. McLean's

The merchants of this section would do well to follow the example of this man: Rudolf Hertzog is the largest dry goods merchant in the city of Berlin.
He says that before he began to advertise he barely cleared expenses. The first year he spent $238 in advertising and his income rose to $7,140; so he went on increasing the amount and his profits in proportion, until at present his advertising bills foot up $160,000 every year.

In advance of the sickly season render yourself impregnable; a malarial atmosphere or sudden change of temperature is fraught with danger; use Dr. J. H.
McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier. $1.00 per bottle. Sold by G. B. Swango, Hazel Green.

Ezekiel Wood, charged with the murder of Miss Esther Oldfield in Morgan county in 1880, which was transferred to Wolfe county, was called for trial last Wednesday morning, and the following jury was impaneled to try the case: W. C. Perkins, Elijah Collins, W. T. McNabb, J. G.
Mullins, B. D. Rose, Jr., John V. Bailey, A. C. Peck, James Tolson, J. S. Chapman, James Wireman and J. F. Tutt.
The prosecution was conducted by H. L.
Wheeler, J. C. Lykins, J. M. Kash, B.
F. Day and L. M. Day; and the defendant was represented by J. W. Kendall, J. B. White and T. C. Johnson. The case was given to the jury Friday evening, but failing to agree on a verdict they were discharged.

Trial of the Smith Boys.

Samp Smith of this county was in our office one day last week, on his return from Laurence county, whither he went to attend the trial of his two nephews.
It will be remembered that they were arrested at his house in March last, charged with the murder of the Hammonds family, and taken back to that county where it was charged the deed had been committed. In connection with the case are some facts deserving of notice. Only one of the Hammonds family was killed in the fight, which was a general one, and the others have all recovered from their wounds. It appears that the Hammonds family, or rather old man Hammonds, was the aggressor in the affair, and he only was killed, but by whom there is no proof. Keene Pritchard, one of the most eminent lawyers in Eastern Kentucky, says there is no case at all against the Smith boys, and all the lawyers for the defense unite in the opinion that when they come to the final trial they will be acquitted.
The fellow Napier, who figured as a detective when here, borrowed a horse to go in pursuit of two men to North Carolina, and selling the horse never returned.
This fellow pretended to be a friend to the Smith boys, and after getting to Louis, was paid by one of them to go home and get him some clothes. Instead he went into the country and mustered twenty-five men to mob them.
On arriving near the jail, however, his cowardly heart caused him to abandon the project. Public opinion was terribly against these boys at the time, but Samp told us it had been almost entirely reversed since the facts have come out in the case. No one now believes they were to blame, and all agree that they acted in self defense.

He is Too Fresh.

Andy Toliver, wounded at the time Craig Toliver was killed, has since died. "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away; blessed be the name of the Lord." Let the good work go on.—Stanton Monitor.

Andy Toliver is not dead, nor even nearing death's portals, according to our information, but the cynical craven that conceived the above deserves the condemnation of every good citizen. The poitron who penned it deserves to have his hand palsied. The heart that could harbor such a thought hates heaven, and should find a home with the heathen.
Andy Toliver is but little more than a youth in years, and has never been guilty of aught to call forth such an absurd appeal to the God who made him. He may be, doubtless, a little wild in his ways, but we'll bet a pint of printers' ink to a pound of ice that he has a soul that would scorn such a sentiment. We'll double the bet that the writer of the above would not utter such uncouth and unfeeling language in Toliver's presence for a deed to the United States. To display one's delight at death is diabolical, and damns the donkey doing it as a driveller. If Andy Toliver has done anything against law and society let the strong arm of the law deal with him.
You have no right to pose as public executioner and exult over his reported exit from the stage of existence. To be brief, the Monitor can do great good in Eastern Kentucky, but if you can not load up with ammunition less foul than the above sample, then we pray you, in the name of all civilized, christian citizens, cease firing—at least at game in these parts. Shame on you.

Cooper of Mt. Sterling, J. W. Kendall and W. W. McGuire of West Liberty.

On account of the burning of the Court House and all the records last December, and consequent failure to transact much business at the January term, the civil and criminal dockets are very heavy and it is doubtful if the civil docket is reached this term.

What True Merit Will Do.

The unprecedented sale of Boschee's German Syrup within a few years, has astonished the world. It is without doubt the safest and best remedy ever discovered for the speedy and effectual cure of Coughs, Colds and the severest Lung troubles. It acts on an entirely different principle from the usual prescription given by Physicians, as it does not dry up a Cough and leave the disease still in the system, but on the contrary removes the cause of the trouble, heals the parts affected and leaves them in a purely healthy condition. A bottle kept in the house for use when the diseases make their appearance, will save doctor's bills and a long spell of serious illness. A trial will convince you of the facts. It is positively sold by all druggists and general dealers in the land. Price, 75 cts, large bottles.

Buckner Walked Away.

Gen. Buckner and Col. Wm. O. Bradley had a joint discussion at Grayson Wednesday, which, in one respect at least, was the most remarkable political episode in the history of Kentucky. Col. Bradley opened the debate in a strong speech of two hours' length. Gen. Buckner took the stand at its conclusion and asked Col. Bradley if he had stated that Gov.
Knott wrote the speech which he (Buckner) had delivered at Lexington on the 15th of June. In reply Bradley said:

All I have to say is: I did state at London, and also at Jackson, that Jim Jones, of London, who knows Proctor Knott well, told me that he recognized Knott's ear marks in Buckner's Lexington speech, and he (Jones) believed that Knott had written the speech.
This is all I ever said, and I do not make that statement on my own responsibility, but upon the information furnished me by Jones.

Gen. Buckner then continued his speech as follows:

For the man who would willingly circulate so vile a charge, although himself not the author of it, I can of course feel nothing but contempt. I denounce the charge as infamously false and outrageous, having no shadow or semblance of foundation in fact. I have invited Mr. Bradley to meet me at my appointment. I now withdraw the invitation, and henceforth decline to have anything whatever to do with him.

At its close the gallant hero of Fort Donelson "immediately took his hat and left the grounds." In his response Bradley called to Buckner to wait and hear him, but the General stalked off on his dignity, and missed the genteel flattery which the Republican standard-bearer administered to him. He said if Buckner would make a tour of the State with him he would beat him 50,000 votes, but that he didn't dare meet him on the stump, and never intended to.

Buckner was guilty of a piece of child's play unworthy a warrior and a party leader. It has been evident from the opening of the campaign that the Democratic committee did not want Buckner to meet Bradley on the stump. One is a captivating speaker and the other is an oratorical lumber, dry as a baked bone, and without sufficient voice to make himself heard, with a bad delivery and a hesitating manner. The contrast was so great and the difference so much in Bradley's favor that the Republican candidate was given no chance to meet Buckner except at Grayson, which was, no doubt, a trap to catch Bradley napping, and give Buckner a lame excuse to avoid further discussion with him.

The grand old Democratic party is in a bad way when its leaders resort to such baby acts to escape a trouncing.—Louisville Commercial.

The Beginning of the End.

The beginning of disease is a slight debility or disorder of some of the vital organs, the stomach, the liver or the bowels usually. There are dyspeptic symptoms, the liver is troublesome, the skin grows tawny and unhealthy looking, there are pains in the right side or through the right shoulder blade. The climax is often an utter prostration of the physical energies, perhaps a fatal issue. But if the difficulty is met in time with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is always effective as a remedy, and it should be resorted to at an early stage, there will be no reason to apprehend those injurious subsequent effects upon the system often entailed by entirely cured diseases. Far better is it, also, to employ this safe remedial agent in fever and ague, and other malarial complaints, than quinine and other potent drugs, which, even when they do prove effectual for a time, ruin the stomach and impair the general health.

Searching for Diamonds in Ken- tucky.

George F. Kunz, the well known young mineralogist with Tiffany & Co., has just returned from a diamond prospecting expedition in Elliott county, Ky., which he made in company with J. S.
Diller, of the U. S. Geological Survey.
They were sent by Major J. W. Powell, Director of the U. S. Geological Survey, on the invitation of Prof. J. R. Proctor, State Geologist of Kentucky. The great similarity of the peridotite of Elliott county to that of the South African diamond fields has attracted much attention, and it was hoped that something might come of the investigation.

The investigation was not flattering for a diamond find of any extent, and Mr. Kunz does not advise any expenditure of money in its development. He says, "If the people there want to look around some, I should advise them to do it in their spare time. The best time to search for gems in that locality is immediately after a heavy rain, when they are most likely to be well exposed on the surface. Those most interested propose to keep up the search economically by furnishing responsible individuals in the region with a number of cheap rough diamonds, mounted in inexpensive rings, for a comparison, so that they may know what to look for under the most favorable circumstances."

Messrs. Kunz and Diller's report to the Geological Survey will be read at the meeting in August of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

D. LANCELL'S ASTHMA AND CATARRH REMEDY.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Having struggled 20 years between life and death with ASTHMA or PHTHISIS, treated by eminent physicians, and receiving no benefit, I was compelled during the last 5 years of my illness to sit on my chair day and night, gasping for breath. My sufferings were beyond description. In despair I experimented on myself by compounding roots and inhaling the medicine thus obtained. I fortunately discovered this WONDER-FUL CURE FOR ASTHMA AND CAT-TARRH, warranted to relieve the most stubborn case of ASTHMA IN FIVE MINUTES, so that the patient can lie down to rest and sleep comfortably. Please read the following condensed extracts from unsolicited testimonials, all of recent date:

Oliver V. R. Holmes, San Jose, Cal., writes:
"I find the Remedy all and even more than represented. I receive instantaneous relief." E. M. Carson, A. M., Warren, Kan., writes: "Was treated by eminent physicians of this country and Germany: tried the climate of different States—nothing afforded relief like your preparation."

L. B. Phelps, P. M., Griggs, Ohio, writes:
"Suffered with Asthma 40 years. Your medicine in 3 minutes does more for me than the most eminent physician did for me in three years."

H. C. Plimpton, Joliet, Ill., writes: "Send Catarrh Remedy at once. Cannot get along without it. I find it to be the most valuable medicine I have ever tried."

We have many other hearty testimonials of cure or relief, and in order that all sufferers from Asthma, Catarrh, Hay Fever, and kindred diseases may have an opportunity of testing the value of the Remedy we will send to any address TRIAL PACKAGE FREE OF CHARGE. If your druggist fails to keep it do not permit him to sell you some worthless imitation by his representing it to be just as good, but send directly to us.
